

Cookie Policy

Last updated: 5 October 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how SPA Linkflor LTD, trading under the trademark Agriplant Gardens ("Agriplant Gardens", "Agriplant", "we", "us" or "our"), uses cookies and similar technologies on agriplant.com.cy.

Company Registration No.: HE 51973 | VAT Registration No.: 10051973J

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that may be stored on your device when you visit a website.

Cookies can perform different functions, such as enabling a website to operate correctly, maintaining security, remembering preferences or helping website operators understand how their websites are used.

Some similar technologies may perform related functions without using traditional browser cookies.

2. How We Use Cookies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies that are strictly necessary for the operation, delivery and security of the website.

These technologies may be used to:

- deliver website pages and content;
- protect the website against malicious traffic and abuse;
- maintain website and network security;
- provide functionality necessary for the website to operate.

Strictly necessary technologies do not require consent where they are essential to provide the website or a service requested by the user.

3. Cloudflare

We use Cloudflare as part of our website infrastructure, including for website delivery, performance and security.

Depending on the security features activated and the circumstances of a particular visit, Cloudflare may use cookies or similar technologies that are necessary to identify trusted traffic, respond to security challenges, prevent abuse and protect the website.

Where such cookies are strictly necessary for website security or operation, they are used for those purposes rather than for advertising.

4. Analytics

We do not use cookies for advertising through this website.

We use privacy-focused website measurement to understand how our website is used. This measurement does not use cookies or similar technologies requiring consent. Information about any related personal data processing is provided in our Privacy Policy where appropriate.

If we introduce analytics or other technologies that require user consent in the future, we will update this Cookie Policy and implement an appropriate consent mechanism before using those technologies where required by law.

5. Third-Party Content and Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites and social media services.

If you leave our website and visit a third-party service, that third party may use its own cookies and similar technologies. Those technologies are controlled by the relevant third party and are subject to its own privacy and cookie policies.

6. Managing Cookies

You can control or delete cookies through your browser settings.

Please note that blocking strictly necessary cookies or technologies may affect the operation, security or functionality of the website.

Where our website uses optional technologies requiring consent, you will be given an appropriate method to accept, reject or manage those technologies.

7. Changes to This Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy if the technologies used by our website change or where necessary to reflect legal or regulatory requirements.

The latest version will always be published on this page.

8. Contact Us
